Communications breed economic growth.

With the rededication of this magnificent structure, the Astoria-Megler Bridge, the last major obstacle in a continuous vehicular route along the Pacific coast between Mexico on the south and Canada on the north has been eliminated.

This stretch of water where the Columbia River joins the Pacific Ocean has proved a formidable adversary to man's transportation progress in this area for countless ages.

It is on this auspicious occasion of the rededication of the Astoria-Megler Bridge that we pay humble homage to all who have labored in any way to make this dream of a structural bridging of this mighty river here come true.
